Dear Pearl:

Many thanks for your letters - and for the list of those who will be at the Southeastern breakfast in Los Angeles and the address changes.

It would be nice to stay at the Imperial House with you; however, none of our people plan to stay there and there will be no expense money, so I guess I had better stay at home. I will, of course, be there as much as I can. As I understand it, there will be one room reserved for the use of the arrangements committee, which we can use along with the Southeastern Conference Committee. I wish I had that house I've been wanting, so you could stay with me. If you can get your room taken care of for three nights, it would be nice to have you here on Wednesday night. But if it would be more convenient for you to wait and come on Thursday, we could handle the Wednesday night registration, I think.

I am glad that Dean Merritt was pleased that you are going to contribute to Mr. Pollack's problems--looks as if you made the right decision.

Thanks, too, Pearl for the list of your duplicates of the American Journal of International Law. I think we would be more interested in the volumes of the Journal than the Proceedings and Documents. What would you ask for the Journals?

It was real good to see you in Louisville. I wish you were going to Los Angeles with me, but I'll look forward to your coming up soon after I get back so that I can tell you all about it - and about Southeastern discussion.

Love,
